ORIGINAL ABSTRACT SUBMISSION INFORMATION

AWIR invites Rheumatology Fellows and Trainees to submit abstracts of their original work for AWIR 2023, clinical cases or research findings. Interns and residents-in-training in an accredited program for an MD, DO, MMBS, or PhD degree, with a focus in rheumatology are also encouraged to submit. Fellows must secure an AWIR membership to be considered. Membership is complimentary for Fellows and is done via our website.

Abstracts must include data on partial or completed clinical trials, observational studies, case studies, or clinical hypotheses.

Accepted abstracts will be invited to present live or virtually during AWIR 2023, on Saturday August 12th, between 13:00 – 13:45 EST. Each presentation will be limited to less than 5 minutes. Accepted abstracts and presenters will be listed in the final AWIR2023 program.

AWIR 2023 will leverage a state-of-the-art app that will live stream the event, host E-Posters, virtual exhibits, polling, and networking.

Register as an AWIR fellow and start the process today.

AWIR provides support for Fellows in the United States to attend the conference. We regret that we are unable to support Fellows outside of the United States to attend live but you can attend/present virtually.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

- Submitted abstracts (350 words) are due for review by June 15, 2023.
- Please send abstracts to AWIR2023@awirgroup.org.
- Please include a brief introduction, objective, methods and conclusion for research abstracts. Graphs, figures, and tables should be submitted in the same file as the abstract.
- Please submit a copy of your CV with the abstract for peer review by the AWIR 2023 Curriculum Committee, including the name of your academic institution and medical program.
- Notification of acceptance as a presenter will be by email within 10 business days.
- In addition to a PowerPoint presentation of 5 minutes, presenters are invited to create E-posters of their presentations to be displayed in AWIR2023's Poster Hall.
- Presenters are requested to record a short audio file introducing the E-poster and a professional photo (.jpeg or .gif). The audio file (120 seconds) will be embedded with the poster
- Final PowerPoint slides, a PDF of the actual poster, and optional video/ audio files of your presentation will need to be submitted by July 16th.
 - PowerPoint slides and a PDF file for E-Posters are mandatory.
 - Video and audio files are not mandatory but are welcome.
- Registration as an AWIR fellow, and registration to the AWIR2023 Conference are mandatory for submission.
