AWIR 2021 SUMMIT Letter of Request

On behalf of the Association of Women in Rheumatology, and our President, Grace Wright, MD, we invite your support and participation in the upcoming AWIR Summits to be held in 2021.

Currently we are scheduling Summits to be virtual in 2021, switching to a virtual and live format as feasible given the status of the pandemic. AWIR reserves the right to move dates as necessary due the pandemic.

2020 was a watershed year for AWIR. Our virtual Summits attracted more clinicians than ever before, one event garnering more than 400 registrants from the US and ex-US. We also expanded our reach globally with representation from more than 20 countries at its meetings. We anticipate that an average of 100 Rheumatologists, Nurse Practitioners, and Physician Assistants will attend Summits next year.

In 2021, our dynamic speakers and sessions will equip our members with the skill sets necessary to integrate state of the art clinical knowledge with practical information to meet the needs of the members and assist them in providing improved patient care. Partners and exhibits (disease state and/or product) are an essential part of our meetings success and benefit both our attendees and the many companies who participate. We anticipate quality interactions in the Industry Partners, who are welcome to attend all sessions, virtual or hybrid with live events.

Sponsorship has been requested from multiple companies.
